

Ancient History Sub-Faculty Seminar
TT 2024
Athenian Revolutions

Week 1 (23rd April) - Rosalind Thomas (Oxford): 'Thucydides on stasis and φιλονικία: was the Athenian stasis so exceptional?'

Week 2 (30th April) - Roel Konijnendijk (Oxford): 'The men of Phyle and the patterns of Greek (civil) war'

Week 3 (7th May) - Katherine Backler (Oxford): 'The Revolutions remembered in the corpus of Lysias'

Week 4 (14th May) - Edward Jones (Oxford): 'Holding the Oligarchs to Account: The Euthunai of the Thirty, the Ten, the Eleven, and the Piraeus Ten'

Week 5 (21st May) - Scarlett Kingsley (Agnes Scott): 'Intellectual Culture and the Revolution of 411 BCE: Political Equality between Democracy and Oligarchy'

Week 6 (28th May) - Nikolaos Papazarkadas (Berkeley/ NHRF): 'Economies in turmoil: from oligarchic frugality to democratic resourcefulness?'

Week 7 (4th June) - Julia Shear (ASCSA): 'Creating collective remembrance in post-oligarchic Athens'

Week 8 (11th June) - Mirko Canevaro (Edinburgh): 'Who's in and who's out: citizen bodies and inclusion/exclusion in late-fifth century Athens'