

Comparative Philology Graduate Seminar – MT 2024

Nominal Word Formation in Indo-European

Convenors:

Tim Barnes, Michele Bianconi, Andreas Willi

Room 207, Centre for Linguistics and Philology, Walton Street
Tuesdays, 2.15-4pm

Week 2 (22 October)	Tim Barnes Nominal word formation in Proto-Indo-European: Internal derivation and vrddhi
Week 3 (29 October)	Andreas Willi Indo-European nominal composition
Week 4 (5 November)	Althea Sovani Derivation of feminine nouns ('motion') in Indo-European
Week 5 (12 November)	Sunny Pydugadu Abstract nouns in and before Greek
Week 6 (19 November)	Allison Murphy and Jonathan Walls I. Mycenaean word formation (Allison Murphy) II. Heteroclitic stems in and before Anatolian (Jonathan Walls)
Week 7 (26 November)	Michele Bianconi and Krishnan Ram-Prasad I. The Caland system (Michele Bianconi) II. 'Nouns that are something else' (Krishnan Ram-Prasad)
Week 8 (3 December)	Special Event 50 Years Comparative Philology Graduate Seminar with guest lectures by Prof. Daniel Kölligan and Prof. David Langslow

Anniversary Celebration

50 Years Oxford Comparative Philology Seminar

Tuesday, 3 December

Sultan Nazrin Shah Auditorium, Worcester College, Oxford

Programme

- 2.15pm Introduction and Reminiscences
- 2.30pm Guest Lecture: Professor Daniel Kölligan (Würzburg)
“On the development of future tenses”
- 3.30pm Coffee break
- 4.30pm Guest Lecture: Professor David Langslow (Manchester)
“Some species of family tree in the editing of a late Latin medical text”
- 5.30pm End

All are welcome!

Participants who would like to join the dinner with the speakers in a local restaurant are asked to let us know by 25 November 2024 (andreas.willi@worc.ox.ac.uk).