

Introduction to the History of Greek (Prof. Andreas Willi)

These lectures are aimed primarily at those taking the Greek Historical Linguistics paper in Greats and in the Joint Schools, for which they form part of the core teaching, but everyone is welcome, including graduate students interested in the history of Greek. The lectures will take place on Tuesdays at 4 p.m. in the Schwarzman Centre, room 30.445 (the Anna Morpurgo Davies Room, on the third floor).
